

IMPORTANT NOTE (CORONAVIRUS)

Due to the current situation, we would like to ask you to refrain from personal visits. If you only want to deliver something, please use our mailboxes. You can also send us an e-mail with your documents and requests.

We will be pleased to advise you by telephone. We have extended the hours of our availability by phone.

Please find telephone numbers and further information on our homepage:

www.jobcenter.wuppertal.de

All local offices remain closed – We are still there for you!

All scheduled appointments have been canceled. The continuation of benefit payments is our first priority and will not be affected by this.

The cancellation of appointments is guaranteed to not have any negative consequences for you.

We have extended our availability by phone and are happy to help – be it spontaneously or with a telephone appointment.

You can find your case officer's phone number on our homepage.

If you merely want to hand in your documents, please use our local offices' post boxes or send them to us via post or e-mail.

Follow-up applications can be sent either informally or as an e-mail attachment by taking a photograph of the application form. You can also send it via post or use the post box at your local Jobcenter office.

You can find the e-mail address of your responsible local office on our homepage.

Even in this difficult time you can rely on us. Jobcenter Wuppertal will be kept in service. Your requests will be processed as usual. Your social benefits will continue to be disbursed reliably. We are here for you!

Stay healthy!
